The Marin County Behavioral Health and Recovery Services Department, in partnership with the Department of Public Health, the Marin County Office of Education, and Buckelew Programs, invites you to an important community conversation to...

- Hear an update about the development of a county-wide suicide prevention strategic plan
- Hear the report out on the results of a Suicide Prevention Community Needs Assessment, including surveys results, interviews, and focus groups findings.
- Share your ideas about what is needed in our communities to increase supports, raise awareness, and prevent suicide.

Your voice, input, and experience are essential to the planning process, and to the effort of reducing suicide in Marin County
